

Anthony Richardson

DIRECTOR

Anthony joined Ford Campbell as Associate Director in 2007 after spending nine years at KPMG split between the Assurance and Transaction Services departments.

Anthony, who has an Accountancy and Economics degree from Lancaster University, qualified as a chartered accountant in 2001.

He was promoted to Director in 2008 and primarily focuses on transactions worth between £10m and £25m, providing advice to owner managers on acquisitions, development capital and disposal of companies operating in the healthcare, manufacturing, food, media and waste industries.

His hobbies include watching his football team, Blackburn Rovers as well as following the England cricket team. He is also a DIY enthusiast, a skill honed from redeveloping an Edwardian house.
